

Holistic LifeStyle Consultation

What is a Holistic LifeStyle Consultation?

Dr. Gerali's Holistic LifeStyle Consultations involve psycho-spiritual mirroring and holistic energy therapy that evolved through higher guidance, prayer and meditation. The purpose of a Holistic LifeStyle Consultation is to make you more aware of underlying issues, problems, blocks, illnesses and perceived limitations that interfere with health, wellness and wholeness. Dr. Gerali demonstrates how shifts in energy, perceptions and behaviors can facilitate healing. Concrete mental images and muscle memory provide positive reinforcement to inspire you on your healing journey.

How is a Holistic LifeStyle Consultation performed?

Dr. Gerali creates a therapeutic environment in a state of oneness, gratitude and prayer, then affirms readiness, openness and receptivity. Issues and illnesses are intuitively demonstrated through psycho-drama, motions, positions, vocalizations and expressions. Clients are encouraged to follow along and feel the release of tension, negative emotions and blocked energy. This promotes a shift in perception and healing is experienced first-hand. After a series of scenes where priorities are addressed, clients will have the opportunity to seek guidance on additional concerns. The session usually ends with an intuitive blessing. Follow-up sessions are scheduled as needed.

Permanent Healing Power

The following concepts about healing are presented not as “beliefs” but as “knowings” based on personal experience and Divine guidance.

1. Energy: Everything in the universe is comprised of energy vibrating at different rates. Healing results with a shift toward a higher, more pure spiritual frequency of vibration.
2. Holism: We are more than a mechanical body and since illness affects all aspects of our being, healing must occur far deeper than the physical. Eliminating a diseased organ or tissue is not sufficient to bring forth permanent healing and wholeness.
3. Openness: Healing occurs when we do not resist, but are open to receiving that which brings forth the highest good for us and the world. Therefore, healing may not manifest in the body or in the form that is desired but it will always be experienced.
4. Potential: Our Essence is divine, loving, perfect, whole, all-knowing and all-powerful. This infinite potential within us is the source of our healing force and is unlimited.
5. Reality: Experiences create our reality; i.e., biography begets biology. To heal, the pain of past experiences and fears about future events must be transformed and released.
6. Alignment: When all aspects of our being—body, mind, heart and soul—are in alignment, we experience peace and harmony. Healing releases pain from the past and helps bring us into alignment with Truth.
7. Divine Order: The universe operates in perfect, divine order. Healing is an unconditional gift that occurs spontaneously when we are in sync with the natural flow and perfection of life.
8. Uniqueness: Since we understand and respond to experience in our own unique way, each person’s healing will be different from that of anyone else’s; it will be perfect for them.
9. Oneness: Since we are part of the whole and function as one, our healing brings forth healing to others and the entire world. The healer is also healed during the healing.
10. Perception: Our earthly experiences empower us to grow and evolve, to become more awake and aware. Therefore, healing is actually a shift in perception and in consciousness.
11. Present: By living fully in the NOW we become spiritually awakened. Healing occurs as we are fully immersed in the present moment and are free of perceived limitations and fear.
12. Beliefs: Erroneous thoughts and belief systems block healing and the realization of perfect health. By freeing the mind from limiting beliefs, we change our life situation from the inside out to realize wellness and wholeness.
13. Gratitude: When healing is received in a state of gratitude, knowing that the Source already knows and is answering prayer, healing can be instantaneous.
14. Love: The only power present in the universe is Love. Healing occurs when love is expressed, recognized and embraced. Fear is the absence of love and blocks healing.
